

Inaugural Scientific Meeting of the Wounds Research Network (WReN)

Draft Programme

Thursday 21st April, 2016 - Room D, Cardiff City Hall

Time	Theme	Talk	Speaker
08:30	Coffee & opportunity for exhibition viewing in Lower, Marble & Assembly Halls
09:00	WReN Inaugural Scientific Meeting - registration and networking
09:30	Welcome & Introduction		Professor Jane Nixon, University of Leeds
09:50	Recruitment	Strategies to improve recruitment in surgical trials	Mr Tom Pinkney, University of Birmingham
10:10		Real World vs NICE patient pathways in leg ulcer management EVRA trial	Professor Alun Davies or Dr Manjit Gohel, Imperial College London
10:30	Coffee & opportunity for exhibition viewing in Lower, Marble & Assembly Halls
11:00	Outcomes	Development and validation of a measure of surgical site infection (SSI) for patient self-report or observer completion	Rhiannon Macefield, University of Bristol
11:20		Understanding the relationship between process and outcome in complex intervention trials	Professor Lisette Schoonhoven, University of Southampton
11:40		Core Outcome Sets in Wounds Research	Dr Georgina Gethin, Galway, Ireland
12:00	WReN Free Papers		Various - TBD
12:45	Lunch & opportunity for exhibition viewing in Lower, Marble & Assembly Halls
14:00	Trial Design	Methodological and practical challenges in sequential designs	Sarah Brown, University of Leeds
14:20		Multi-stage, multi arm (MAMS) Trials: what do they offer wounds research?	James Wason, University of Cambridge
14:40		Lessons learned from a feasibility and pilot two-arm trial for the prevention of abnormal scarring after burns injury	Mr Naiem Moiemem, University of Birmingham
15:00		Surgical wounds healing by secondary intention – building the evidence for trial design	Professor Ian Chetter, University of Hull/York
15:20	Concluding remarks		Professor Jane Blazeby, University of Bristol
15:30	Close		